(The pro hac vice admission fee is $150.00 and shall be paid to the Clerk. No admission under Rule 83.14 is effective until such time as the fee has been paid.)

NOTE: Attorneys seeking to appear pro hac vice may wish to consider filing a petition for admission to the general bar of this Court. The fee for admission to the General Bar is $181.00. The fee for pro hac vice admission is $150.00. Admission to the general bar permits an attorney to practice before this Court. Pro hac vice admission entitles an attorney to appear in a particular case only. Application for such admission must be made in each case; and the admission fee must be paid in each case.

Has the applicant ever been censured, suspended, disbarred, or otherwise disciplined by any court?

In 2019 Toma Makedonski was disciplined by the Northern District of Illinois Bankruptcy Court, because an employee falsified dates on a credit counseling certificate. Mr. Makedonski took full responsibility for his employee's actions and was removed from the Northern District of Illinois Bankruptcy Court.

Has the applicant ever been transferred to inactive status, voluntarily withdrawn, or resigned from the bar of any court?

Toma Makedonski voluntarily withdrew from the Northern District of Illinois Bankruptcy Court following the incident above in 2019.
